Below is a timeline
of EAS's milestones

Electro-Acoustics Systems Pte Ltd was incorporated

Partnered with a Swiss company to offer "state of the art" boardroom presentation systems that integrate remote steering capabilities.

EAS diversified into broadcast business in Singapore, Brunei and Malaysia.

Ventured into China market.

EAS offered solutions for stage lighting and riggings.

EAS clinched the largest multimedia contract in Singapore — Suntec Singapore International Convention and Exhibition Centre.

Provided the Large Video and LED Display System for Brunei Outdoor Stadium (SEA Games).

Designed and installed the sound and communication infrastructure, theatrical lighting, loudspeaker system design, studio rigging, and mixer elevators in the concert hall of Esplanade.

Installed the 1st Theatrical Staging System in School for Republic Polytechnic.

EAS ventured into digital information signage systems.

Designed and installed multimedia system to hotels, theatres, public spaces. Universal Studio attractions for Resort World Sentosa.

| 82 | 84 | 85 | 87 | 91 | 92 | 93 | 94 | 96 | 99 | 00 | 02 | 04 | 05 | 06 | 07 | 09 | 10 |

Incorporated Audio-visual System Concept by designing and installing Asia's first integrated rear projection AV system for Monetary Authority of Singapore. Ventured into China market.

Completed the 1st Robotic Studio in Asia for Singapore Broadcasting Corporation.

EAS introduced and installed the first outdoor colour electro-mechanical Q board display system in Singapore

EAS installed the first full coloured video board in Southeast Asia.

Introduced Network Solutions for clients.

Obtained ISO9001 Certification.

Installed technology court systems and AV systems for the new building of Supreme Court of Singapore.

Ventured into Myanmar market.

Designed, supplied, installed and commissioned Smart Control, Audio-Visual and BGM systems for St. Regis Hotel.

Installed theatre rigging, sound reinforcement systems and stage lighting for School of the Arts Singapore.

1982 – 2010